Abduction and Sexual Assault

Georgetown Police Department are actively working an investigation involving an abduction and sexual assault that occurred between 12:30 am and 1:30 am, 3/20/2024. Initial reports indicate the abduction happened in the 100 block of W. Valley and N. Main St and the victim was taken to an unidentified location and sexually assaulted.

The victim is a 36-year old, female, and Georgetown resident that stated she was walking to a convenience store when the vehicle stopped, the male driver exited the vehicle, threatened her with a large knife, used zip-ties to bind her wrists, and then forced her into the vehicle. She further provided the assailant drove her to a secluded area, sexually assaulted her, and then drove her back to the location he abducted her and left her.

The male is described as:

White male with long red hair, long red beard, and a slender build.
No other descriptors were able to be provided.

The vehicle is described as:

Metallic Silver in color with a hatchback, smaller than an SUV
